Membership in Norwich University's Graduate Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa is granted to those Master of Science in Leadership students who demonstrate leadership achievements in one or more of the four dimensions of the Norwich University Values-Based Leadership Taxonomy:

1. Leading the Self
2. Leading Others
3. Leading Organizations
4. Leading in Service.

ODK members are:
- Graduate students in the upper 35 percent of their class
- Faculty and staff
- Alumni who graduated more than five years ago (except for our 2014/2015 graduates who will be “grandfathered in”)
- Local, national and international leaders who qualify for honorary membership.

ODK members are expected to demonstrate:
- Exemplary character
- Responsible leadership and service
- Superior scholarship
- Genuine fellowship
- Dedication to democratic ideals.

The membership selection process is based on Norwich University Master of Science in Leadership focus on applied learning.

In January the MSL OΔK circle will publicize an application period on our virtual campus portal and in your classroom to invite people who believe they meet the Society’s membership criteria to apply. After the circle has considered all applicants, you will be notified if you have been accepted into the honor society or not.
To Apply (Graduate Students):
- You must be an MSL major / MSOL Alum at Norwich University.
